

Instructions: This worksheet contains 4 parts, and you must complete all of them. Use the activity responses from Week 12, 13, 14 and 15 activities to complete the worksheet.

In order to complete the assignment, you must follow these steps:

1. Complete this worksheet with the responses from your activity documents.
2. You'll find that each question has its own submission block where you need to put in your answers.
3. You must complete all the blocks available under a question. Leaving a block empty will be considered as that question not being answered (even if you answer it somewhere else).
4. Make sure you place the correct answer under the right question. Misplaced answers will not be marked.
5. Save, and submit this worksheet on Savanna.

Part A: Financial Risks, Risk Mitigation, and Insurance

Instructions:

- Go through the case study in Week 12's activity.
- Read through and analyze the case to answer the questions listed below.
- Provide reasoning for your responses, and write them in a concise, well-structured manner. Use bullet points where necessary for clarity.

Question 1: Risk with Expansion

Analyze the market risks associated with GlobalTech's expansion strategy, focusing on interest rate risk, currency risk, and commodity price risk. How might these risks impact the company's financial stability? Propose strategies to mitigate each identified market risk, using examples from the case study.

Question 2: Credit and Liquidity Risk

Evaluate the credit risk and liquidity risk posed by extending payment terms to clients in high-risk markets and issuing bonds in multiple currencies. How can these risks affect GlobalTech's operations and cash flow? Suggest measures the company could implement to manage and minimize these risks effectively.

Question 3: Controls and Insurance

Discuss how internal controls and insurance could play a role in managing the financial risks identified in GlobalTech's expansion. Provide examples of specific internal controls that could mitigate risk and types of insurance policies that might protect the company from unforeseen events.

Part B: Foundations of Business Ethics and Corporate Governance

Instructions:

- Go through the case study in Week 13's activity.
- Read through and analyze the case to answer the questions listed below.
- Provide reasoning for your responses, and write them in a concise, well-structured manner. Use bullet points where necessary for clarity.

Question 1

Use external resources to research and analyze the ethical dilemmas faced by Enron Corporation. Discuss the underlying factors and motivations that contributed to the company's unethical behavior.

Question 2

Discuss the impact of the Enron scandal on stakeholders, including investors, employees, and the broader financial market.

Question 3

Identify lessons learned from the Enron scandal and propose recommendations for preventing similar ethical lapses in corporate governance and financial reporting.

Part C: Corporate Governance and CSR

Instructions:

- Go through the case study in Week 14's activity.
- Read through and analyze the case to answer the questions listed below.
- Provide reasoning for your responses, and write them in a concise, well-structured manner. Use bullet points where necessary for clarity.

Question 1:

Using the case study, analyze GreenFlow's governance gaps. What are the key areas where the company failed to meet internationally recognized governance standards? What structural changes and processes should be introduced to align with frameworks like the King III Code and the OECD Principles?

Question 2:

Given the supply chain issues and ad hoc nature of GreenFlow's CSR initiatives, how can the company integrate CSR into its core strategy? What steps can be taken to address ethical labor practices, and how can measurable CSR objectives contribute to stakeholder trust and long-term value?

Question 3:

Develop a strategic roadmap for GreenFlow to address its governance and CSR challenges. How can the company ensure transparency and accountability in its governance processes while fostering a culture of sustainability and ethical behavior? Suggest specific metrics or benchmarks for monitoring progress.

Part D: South African Airways Case Study

Instructions:

- Go through the case study in Week 15's activity.
- Read through and analyze the case to answer the questions listed below.
- Provide reasoning for your responses, and write them in a concise, well-structured manner. Use bullet points where necessary for clarity.
